Bring the Rain

Upon a Burning Body

We are setting the fires
That light the wayWe are setting the firesWe are setting the fires
That light the way
And as the flames burn, they blind us from the pain
But this path leads only to our darkest days
So give me something to believe in
And I'll bring the rainI don't need to escape from this maze
Cause I'm about to set it all ablaze
It's time to face my fears, the past is gone
I'm still standing here
I'm still standing hereI'm looking for a match if you couldn't tell
I'm one strike away from raising hell
We are setting the fires
That light the way
And as the flames burn, they blind us from the pain
But this path leads only to our darkest days
So give me something to believe in
And I'll bring the rainRaise the flags, rev the engines
Let's find something to believe inRaise the flags, rev the engines
We are something to believe in
Raise the flags, rev the engines
ThunderI believe, I'll bring the rain
You bring the thunder
I believe, yeah you better believe
I'll bring the rain
You bring the thunder
I'm still standing here
I'm still standing hereWe are setting the fires
That light the way
And as the flames burn, they blind us from the pain
But this path leads only to our darkest days
So give me something to believe in
And I'll bring the rain
