Hear Me (tears Into Wine)

Jim Brickman

Take these tears, put 'em in a bottle
Don't let these tears I cry be in vain
Take these tears, keep them up in heaven
Water my life with tears like rainHear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hopin'
Hear me, I am feeling broken
I am broken openTake this life, turn it into something
I'm afraid it's just wasting time
Turn this life the sun has ripened, grow it slowly on the vine
Turn my tears into wineHear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hopin'
Hear me, I am feeling broken
But I am broken openTurn my tears into wine
Turn these tears into wine
All that's left of me are traces
Make me stronger in my broken placesHear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hopin'
Hear me, I am feeling broken
And I am broken openTurn these tears into wine
Turn my tears into wine, hear me
