

Wasteland (Demo)

Wargasm

Nothing lives nothing breathes a silent wind will blow
A darkness lies upon this land sent to us from below
A nothingness no one will see a terminated sky
A deadly pall of glowing grey nothing left to die War after war in the homeland bomb versus bomb in the sky
A curse upon the earth itself a planet too can die
A race for control of the planet idiots ordering war Multiple megaton pile-up knowing too well what they're for A mutant race of tortured souls of warped flesh and bone
Inhabit this dead planet now a lifeless slab of stone
A stinking cloud lingers here we cower in our caves
We care not where the future lies atomic zombie slaves Do you remember long before your mutant mind was born
Your memories are a murky mist from your mind they've been torn Kill them all survival first your instincts taking hold Protect what's yours collect some more a circle now unfolds
