

I'm Still Good

Hannah Montana

So I might slip again
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good
I look around me,
How did I get here?
Not part of my plan
I ended up in
A situation
Wasn't in my hands
I think about it
When I wanna give up
How to keep on goin'
How to keep my chin up
So now I know it
I'm not gonna give up
Never gonna give up
So I might slip again
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good
Tryin' to be my best
When I fall it's a mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good
I'm still good (x2)
You live it like that
And I can't shake 'em
It's weighin' on my mind
So I'm just sayin' that
I'm only human
Life gets you down sometimes
I think about it
When I wanna give up
How to keep on goin'
How to keep my chin up high
So now I know it
I'm not gonna give up
Never gonna give up

So I might slip again
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good

Tryin' to be my best
When I fall it's a mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

So I might slip again
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good

Tryin' to be my best
When I fall it's a mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

Life puts up a fight with me
But I can take on anything

I'm gonna make it real
This dream I believe in

When I wanna give up
How to keep on goin'
How to keep my chin up

So now I know it
I'm not gonna give up
Never gonna give up
oh oh oh

So I might slip again
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything
I'm still good

Tryin' to be my best
When I fall it's a mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

So I might slip again
Let it in now and then
That don't mean anything

I'm still good
Tryin' to be my best
When I fall it's a mess
Pick myself up again
I'm still good

(I'm still good)
Pick myself up again
I'm still good
I'm still, I'm still good
