The Flys

 dont ask questions
 beg forgiveness

 i remember mother
 remember mother
 i remember motheeer
 on an isle thats far way theres a place i long to play on a magic singing street I know more than u can know but u never ask to hear so my voice is gone away it's been muted by my tears yeah - ooooh mother

i remember mother
remember mother
i remember motheeeeer
i remember mother
remember mother
i remember motheeer
haha
i remember mother
remember mother
i remember motheeeeer
i remember mother
remember mother
do u hear me now
my mother, my mother
do you hear me now
ooooooohhhh mother
ooooooohhh mother
ooooooooohhh mother
