Blue Hair

Blowsight

We can't draw the line where it should be
Or fill our lungs with misery
Take my words 'cause we can't be lovers, we can't be lovers
We can't give the girl another soul
Filled with drugs and alcohol
Take my words now, we can't be lovers, we can't be lovers, we can'tI had a vision but I threw it away
On milkshakes and pride paradesYou can open your eyes and smile
It's better if you feel aliveI'm checking out the girl with blue hair
Taking some new air
Putting on new foundation
I wanna be in every corner lady
I wanna be where you are
And I'm burning all I had
(To become a better man inside)
Yeah, I burn the memory about the new foundation
Fading all the colours in the sky when I'm not aroundWe can't live the life the way we do Break the buildings, build up new Face the facts now
this could be over, this could be over
We can't close our eyes and shut the door
Remember how they lived before
Different times but they were the lovers, they were the lovers of allI'm checking out the girl with blue hair
Taking some new air
Putting on new foundation
I wanna be in every corner lady
I wanna be where you are
And I'm burning all I had
(To become a better man inside)
Yeah, I burn the memory about the new foundation
Fading all the colours in the sky when I'm not aroundThat's meWhat's that town, where is everybody heading?
(We can't die we're avoiding the wedding)
What's that town, where is everybody leading me?
(Pump up the volume, let's go)What's that town, where is everybody heading?
(We can't die we're avoiding the wedding)
What's that town, where is everybody leading me?
(Pump up the volume, let's go)I'm checking out the girl with blue hair
Taking some new air
Putting on new foundation
I wanna be in every corner lady

I wanna be where you areI'm checking out the girl with blue hair
Taking some new air
Putting on new foundation
I wanna be in every corner lady
I wanna be where you are
And I'm burning all I had
(To become a better man inside)
Yeah I burn the memory about the new foundation
Fading all the colours in the sky when I'm not aroundThat's me
