Fall Apart Today

Schuyler Fisk

I don't want us to fall apart today or ever You're the one who said you'd never leave There's no good reason for giving up
All this mess is just bad luck So please don't lose your confidence in meI wish I wasn't so fragile cause I know that I'm not easy to handleFall Apart Today (Schuyler Fisk)Oh baby please Don't forget you love me
Don't forget you love me
today
Oh my baby please
don't forget you love me
todayI don't wanna feel like this But I'm so tired of missing you I don't wanna beg for your time I want you mine, all mineI wish I wasn't so fragile cause I know that I'm not easy to handleOh baby please Don't forget you love me
Don't forget you love me
Oh my baby please
todayI bet you smile when you think of me you love me messy in the morning freckles on my knees oh baby pleaseOh baby please
Don't forget you love me
Don't forget you love me

Oh my baby please
todayOh baby, sweet baby oh Oh my baby, sweet babyDon't forget you love me...
