

Sheep

Tesla Rossa

I wrote my name on your wall last night
In hopes that id end up in your dreams
But i am just a sheep
Tell me where to go
Tell me where to sleep
Ill keep my head to the ground
Youâ€™re too much beauty for me
I'll keep counting for all eternity

I wake wight he sun and enter as you sleep
Coz I need what you give so graciously
This love must be discrete
She can never know whats sitting at your feet
It's your gift on the ground
It's too much beauty for me
I'll keep counting for all eternity
