

Crown

Collective Soul

Who's gonna be my savior
Now that I've learned to believe
And who's gonna be the answer
To all of my questioning?
Well, I hope I'm not lost
But I think that hope is now distancing
And the words that secure a cause
Are not faint whisperings
Who's gonna wear my crown?
Who's gonna wear my crown?
I don't know
I just might, alone
Who's gonna wear my crown?
Who's gonna wear my crown?
I don't know
I just got to go my way
And who's gonna be my partner
Now that I stand here alone?
And who's gonna be the shepherd
To lead this poor boy back home?

Well, I hope I'm not lost
But I think that hope is now distancing
And the words that secure a cause
Are now faint whisperings
Who's gonna wear my crown?
Who's gonna wear my crown?
I don't know
I just might, alone
Who's gonna wear my crown?
Who's gonna wear my crown?
I don't know
I just got to go my way
Who's gonna wear my crown?
Who's gonna wear my crown?
I don't know
I just might, alone
Who's gonna wear my crown?
Who's gonna wear my crown?

I don't know
I just got to go
