

Fenris

Dyad

Lyrics: Grutle Kjellson 1994

(#_# by Ivar Bjrnson 1994)

Forget all laws, all order and peace

Chaos is everything; no time or place

Now when all light and life ends,

When the wind now is killing,

The chain has broken... #

The time has come as the Norns predicted

nothing lasts forever

the Battle at Vigrid shall come there is no brother there is no strong bounds

The bound anger is loose inner coldness is free

a river of foam

has dried up the Power of the Wolf, the obscure hate

No longer sees a time

Angrboda beared

her name justly

With Lauvous son she breed dread, hate and death

a cry of warning in the dark the mountain's roots, bear tendons

Woman heard, the sound of catsteps breath from the fish, spit from the bird tamed forces from a forgotten time has held Our Wolf in chains

But not forever!

Fenris is loose

Now our wisdom

is swallowed by ancient hate

The nine steps are fulfilled

A new road is laid
