Stolen

Lawson

Lights out and it's cold now
And there's nothing but an empty room in front of me
I wiped out and the line's down
And there's no sound like there used to be
With you and meCan't sleep tonight
Keep on wondering why
I didn't see the signs, I didn't realise
Now I'm frozen
I had it all
Couldn't want anymore, more
But everything's stolen.And now I realize I could have been a better man
I took it all for granted when I should have took your hand
You were the only thing I needed but I couldn't see
Just look around, there's nothing left of me
Everything's stolen, stolen, yeah
Everything's stolen, stolen, yeahWords out, I won't stand down
Got your face up now on every wall of every street
I retrace every step I made back to
The place where it used to be, you and me.I had it all couldn't want anymore, more
But everything's stolen.And now I realize I could have been a better man
I took it all for granted when I should have took your hand
You were the only thing I needed but I couldn't see
Everything's stolen, stolen, yeah
Everything's stolen, stolen, yeahI knew you had to leave me
But that don't make it easy, no no
When everything is stolen.
You were the best of us
Gave me all you had but I messed it up
You were the best of us
Gave me all you had but I messed it up
You were the best of us
Gave me all you had but I messed it up
Gave me all you had.Oh oh yeahAnd now I realize I could have been a better man
I took it all for granted when I should have took your hand
You were the only thing I needed but I couldn't see
Everything's stolen, stolen, yeah
Everything's stolen, stolen, yeahI knew you had to leave me

But that don't make it easy, no no
When everything is stolen.
You were the best of us
Gave me all you had but I messed it up
You were the best of us
Gave me all you had but I messed it up
