Daring To Love

Ane Brun

the ones that I can never overcome I want to be someone you can lay your weight upon someone who's saves you someone who holds ondaring to love oh love
la la la la la la la la la laa
and come alive
alive la la la la la la la la la laaI can be your heroine if someone lends a hand to hold my heart this heaving pounding sound I am carrying it leads me straight it makes me fall apartdaring to love
oh love
la la la la la la la la la laabut most of all to be loved I will fail to take the easy way out I will tell the truth one more time even though it hurts even though I stay in the sheets we have on I will take a step on the densest darkest grounddaring to love
oh love
la la la la la la la la la laa
but most of all to be loved
