I Am Nothing

Endless Shame

It seems Im always in this place
Where the things I seem to take
Are the things I wish would fadeI always put this in my heart
Well, to do things the right way
Then I realize, Im still clayAnd this piece thats being shaped
Will be a beauty You createI am nothing without Your love
Im unworthy but Your death has been enough
Im completed by Your touch
But I feel like Ive been given so much
So I thank You, I thank YouI wouldnt even face
All the troubles of the day
If it wasnt for Your graceSometimes I even wait
To see if Im awake
It seems so good, I cant relateAnd You're every word I crave
And Im grateful for every breath I takeI am nothing without Your love
Im unworthy but Your death has been enough
Im completed by Your touch
But I feel like Ive been given so much
So I thank You, I thank YouWhen Im feeling all my shame
You wont let it stay
I sail away into Your loveIm taking every day
To give my life the way
Its the only way I knowI am nothing without Your love
Im unworthy but Your death has been enough
Im completed by Your touch
But I feel like Ive been given so muchAnd I am nothing, You are everything
So I thank You, I thank You
Lord, I thank You, I thank You
