

Spotlight Kid

Angel Dust

[Originally by Rainbow] You don't know what's happening, you want to go home but there's nowhere to hide you walk out on stage, your first time alone the crowd's going wild and you feel so alive you could stand up and take this all night they love you but you're in love with the spotlight you're the spotlight kid Jokers and women they hang 'round your door they're all part of the scene just like a junkie you've got to have more it's a pleasure machine and you fly every night but the dressing room mirror don't lie
they love you but you're in love with the spotlight you're the spotlight kid Your audience died, faded away leaving you on the stage it's been so many years since that first matinee it seems like an age encore one more time
