Beneath (Feel)

One Acen

I had a dream last night that I woke up and you were right there
I had a dream last night turns out that it was a nightmare
Iâ€™m so lost and confused
Like what do you want me to do
Tryna find the joy in my sorrow, watching a rainbow from a hospital view

Youâ€™re the light at the end of my tunnel
Have I learned everything that you need me to, know
So many lessons you taught thatâ€™ll plant in my seeds when they, grow
You taught me time was a gift life a talent, I just hope your time was blissfully managed
Iâ€™ll see you one day, some day, as the radio plays on a Sunday I feel

Feel, here with no ears, no lie ,heart aching, blood rushing, through my veins
Free, closest to death or life, lost to life, now youâ€™re so far away
And it feels like my worldâ€™s changing
From the pain rolls something amazing
I had a dream last night that I woke up and you were right there
I had a dream last night turns out that it was a nightmare

Had a dream I was sitting on a chair and you were upstairs
I woke up from the dream still sitting on the chair, but you werenâ€™t up there
I cried me a river but its not enough tears
I know Iâ€™ve been a sinner but its so unfair
Lord, youâ€™ve ignored all prayers all night that radio song was playing all night

Like im, Im just tryna lay low
Me now boys time I grind for payroll
Love donâ€™t cost a thing like J-Lo
So, rudeboy keep the change but take note
Mamma I love you, please stick around
Till I can hear you say I did ya proud
I know back then I called the cash lost
I hope I hit the jackpot so we can beâ€¦

Free, here with no ears, no lie ,heart aching, blood rushing, through my veins
Feel, closest to death or life, lost to life, now youâ€™re so far away
And it feels like my worldâ€™s changing
From the pain rolls something amazing
I had a dream last night that I woke up and you were right there

I had a dream last night turns out that it was a nightmare

Feel, here with no ears, no lie ,heart aching, blood rushing, through my veins
Free, closest to death or life, lost to life, now youâ€™re so far away
And it feels like my worldâ€™s changing
From the pain rolls something amazing
I had a dream last night that I woke up and you were right there
I had a dream last night turns out that it was a nightmare
