Love Will Never Lie

C21

So many things to say so many words to spell the way you make me feel I want my heart to tellNo place to run and hide don't you know....That I've been strong enough for loneliness I'm holding back the bestLove will never lie
even when your gone
I will be right here waiting 'till we belongLove will never lie
I stole your rights to cry
waiting 'till we belongDon't tell me how to change don't tell me what I need how will you hear my words if you don't believeI wanna take you back 'cause now I know....That I've been strong enough for loneliness
I'm holding back the bestLove will never lie
even when your gone
waiting 'till we belongLove will never lie
I stole your rights to cry
I will be right here waiting 'till we belongIt's good to know the words to say without losing faith I know that it's coming thru maybe it's a break for you
