Burning In Hell

Possessed

Music: MT Lyrics: JB
Death has beckoned you to hell
You can't escape my evil spell
Past the gates, evil fate
Into the depths cast to burn unseen terror life of doom tragic, black magic Sorrow in your afterlife victim of your sins tonight my grasp, will last Nightmares of eternity
Forgotten souls and tirrany
You lived now die
No life no death no future here
Infinite horror screams of fear
You flesh, deacyed
Run and hide there's no relief Pounding hearts is full of grief screams, dreams
No one hears you scream at night demons own your soul with might illusions, delusions
Roasted in the flames of hell
Beware the cast the evil spell burning, yearnning
Dreams become reality
You can't outlive infinity
Burning in hell
Solo : MT Solo : LL
Prowling through the night like a bad dream
stalking out your prey Hear the victims scream
Driven by a vision
Ruling your domain
Lurking in the shadows
Driving you insane
Know that you're not crazy
Nothing you remember

Mind is so blank
And Your thoughts become a hinder Know there's something evil Hiding in your mind
Waiting for that moment
To sneak up from behind
