Nothing Personal

Don Grolnick

I can love you, I can hate you
But I got to let you go
Find a new direction
I can love you, I can hate you
And I got to let you know
You won't turn your head when you goWhen I think about you, everything changes
You you got to go, you you got to go
You you got to go, try to understand
It's nothing personal when I lose controlI can hear you, I can see you
And you got to let me know
Got to see thing clearly
I can hear you, I can see you
But you got to let me go
I won't lose my head when you go
