Room For Happiness

Kaskade

influence (echo at beginning) sometimes I wish I never felt, the influence of you cuz now i feel the disconnect, like an open wound where you once were there is a space, that runs as deep as hell but every morning when i wake i tell myself
don't be fooled by your emptiness, there's so much more room for happiness
don't be fooled by your emptiness, there's so much more room for happiness
yeah, yeah, yeah

sometimes it's worse to have lost, than to have never had at all cuz it's a curse, to feel love and to feel it all dissolve
don't be fooled by your emptiness, there's so much more room for happiness
yeah, yeah, yeah
yeah, yeah, yeah x5
