

Apologies

James Figurine

Forgive your friends
They usually don't mean it
And in the end
There words aren't worth there meanings

Apologies are gifts
Accept them with a smile on your
Apologies are gifts
Without them you'd be on you're own

You'd be on your own
Forgive your friends
Even when they hurt you badly
You have to help them up

When they trip over your feelings
Apologies are gifts
Accept them with a smile on your face
Apologies are gifts

Without them you'd be on your own
You'd be on your own
You'd be on your own
It's all just water under the bridge

Mistakes, mistakes, mistakes
We all make them
Apologies are gifts
Accept them with a smile on your

Apologies are gifts
Without them you'd be on you're own
You'd be on your own
