

By Crooked Steps

Soundgarden

I'm addicted to feeling
Stealing love isn't stealing
Can't you see that I understand your mind? I'm a walking believer
I'm a ghost and a healer
I'm the shape of the home inside your heart Not looking for a brighter side
Crooked steps will take me higher
I don't care if you want to cry
I'm a soldier for hire
Killing all you admire
And you live in the cloud but that will change Not looking for a brighter side
Crooked steps will take me higher
I don't care if you want to cry Blood raining down
Cuts a deep, deep river
And we're diving
And we're diving By crooked steps
Right behind you By crooked steps
Right behind you I'm a walking believer
I'm a ghost and a healer
Can't you see that I understand your mind? By crooked steps
Right behind you
