Pink Things

He big mr. porno man try to enslave her if you can reel her in with diamond rings and all sorts of pretty things high heeled legs street corner scene the ripe old age of seventeen little pink things are now for sale for disease ridden, respectable males hey big mr. porno man make that move you know you can she'll be for sale to fill your needs she'll be working on the silver screen and you know she'll do her best or you'll be hear up like you did the rest an end will come to your rotten world of beating up helpless little girls new girl lives alone, runaway to the city a small town girl naive and pretty a friendly face and straight blonde hair you'll get her working on times square long leather blazer and a big pink hat checking on your girls from your cadillac one of these days we'll check on you a bullet in your skull and you'll be through
