Song Title: I'M A Bitch For You
Album:
[B u y " " CD]shut my mind off to the riches of sin i made a decision to make it all go away now i'm a bitch for youshut my door tight to the millions of people that think they know
think they know
oh no, not them
cause i'm a bitch for you oh, oh, oh i'm a bitch for youtake me up to the final ground are you willing to please?
like a child being born in a fire storm are you down on your knees?
take me up to the final ground
are you willing to please?
being born like a child in a fire storm are you down on your knees?take a reminder remember the health of all the things saving me from killing myself
it's true, i'm a bitch for younow dont go straight or tell me to turn or lead me to fire
and tell me to burn
oh, no, no
i'm a bitch for you
go, go, go
down on my knees
i'll be a bitch for youtake me up to the final ground are you willing to please?
i was down on my knees.
are you willing to please?
reborn like a child in a fire storm
i was down on my knees.down on your knees.

down on your knees.
down on your knees.now be a bitch for me
down on your knees
down on mine...take me up to the final ground i am willing to please
down on your knees.your knees.
your knees.
