

Bacon N' Eggs

Priscilla Renea

((Verse 1))

I know that you love me more than ever
And baby I promise I'll be better
No I won't...keep making you feel like I don't care at all
Cause I'll do whatever it takes to keep a smile on your face
Even if that means makin' you bacon 'n' eggs
If that's what it takes then I'm makin' you bacon

((Chorus))

Soon as I wake up, and wash my face up
I'm headed to the kitchen to open up the fridge and
Out of the oven, blueberry muffins
I know they're your favorite so I won't keep you waiting
Heyyyyyyyyyyy, todayyyyyyyyyyy.
You won't be mad about yesterday
Once I make you bacon and eggs, today.

((Verse 2))

Todayyyyyyyyyyy-y-y-y
I'm hoping you don't fall short of patience with me
I feel like you're always so frustrated baby
And I'm sure that
Once in a while you think I'll never change
But I'll do whatever it takes to keep a smile on your face
Even if that means makin' you bacon 'n' eggs
If that's what it takes then I'm makin' you bacon

((Chorus))

((Bridge))

Grits, (grits)
cheese, (cheese)
O.J. fresh squeezed, (squeezed)
Jam with bread and margarine (mar-gar-ine)
Been slavin' on this all mornin'
I hope that you're hungry

((Chorus to outro))
