

Are We Really Through

Ray LaMontagne and the Pariah Dogs

Is the sun ever gonna break
Break on through the clouds
Shine down in all its glory?
Onto me, here upon the ground
'Cause I can't hear a sound
'Cept my own sad story
I get so tired starin' at the walls
Weight so heavy and that mountain so tall
Is there no one who would catch me if I fall?
Is there no one who would catch me if I fall?
It's more, it's more than I can take
I wish that I could fake it
Pretend like I don't know what's goin' on
Somethin's wrong, somethin's wrong
Tryin' to hold on
For just a little longer
I get so tired starin' at the walls
Weight so heavy and that mountain so tall
Is there no one who would catch me if I fall?
Who's gonna catch me if I fall?
Can you hear me? Can you see me?
Why is that so hard for you to do?
Don't dispel me, girl, just tell me
Are we really through?
Is the sun ever gonna break
Break on through the clouds
Shine down in all its glory?
Onto me, here upon the ground
'Cause I can't hear a sound
'Cept my own sad story
Can you hear me? Can you see me?
Why is that so hard for you to do?
Don't dispel me, girl, just tell me
Are we really through?
Are we really through?

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>