Let The Monster Rise

Alexa Vega

Didn't I tell you not to go out?
Didn't I? You did, you did
Didn't I say the world was cruel?
Didn't I? You did, you did
Then tell me how this happened
What I did wrong, tell me why?
Can we just go home, Shi
And forget this dreadful night?
Didn't you say that you were different?
Didn't you? I am, I am
Say you aren't that person
Say it, I am, I am
Then tell me how to act, dad
What to say, dad, tell me why?
All you've ever told me
Every word is a lie

Didn't you say that you'd protect me?
Didn't you? I tried, I tried
Is that how you'd help me?
Is it? I tried, I tried
Don't help me anymore, dad
You are dead, dad, in my eyes
Someone has replaced you
Dad, I hate you, go and die
Didn't I build a house, a home?
Didn't I? You did, you did
Didn't I raise her all alone?
Didn't I? You did, you did
Then Rotti took her from me
Stole my Shilo, he's to blame
Have I failed my daughter?
Then let the father die and let the monster rise
