Evil Thing

Thee Headcoatees

I serve my perdition in this private hell
A thousand angers have kept me alive
Carve a hole in your distorted world
I'm here to bang it, yeah
Blessing is a curse, seduction and thirst
Feeds the hunger, burns inside
Take a little caution when you look my way
See the emptiness a-in my eyes
And the evil thing that I bring, soulless light, yeah
Warning is a-come upon your heels
Feel your dreams slip away
Take a little caution in the dead of night
Let the darkness rise again
Want the needing
Want to feel you near
Want you, need your life
Want you, need your life
Feed it to me
Yeah, blessing is a curse, seduction and thirst
Feeds the hunger that burns inside
Take a little caution when you look my way
See the emptiness in my eyes
Yeah, hey
Want the needing
Want to feel you near
Want your soul
Want your, need your life
Want you, need your life, yeah
