

Shoe Salesman

Alice Cooper

I know a shoe salesman
He's an acquaintance of mine
One day he showed me some
Marks on his arm in a line
I did not know what to say
"Do you think those freckles will stay?" I need a Popsicle
Do you want lemon or lime?
I've got a special today
If you've got the time Winking, she poked me in the side
"Well, we could go for a ride"
I did not know what to say
"Do you think those freckles will stay?" Well, you think that she will see
I don't think she will see
