

When the World Falls Apart

The Slakadeliqs

The world you and i
Will never know just what we change
Every hting we do
every thing we say
Just say it some day
We are all to blame
When the world when the world falls apart
When the world when the world falls apart
When the world when the world falls apart
. as we start
Everything you do everything you say
Just saw it someday so we are all to blame
When the world when the world falls apart
When the world when the world falls apart
When the world when the world falls apart
When the world when the world falls apart
When the world when the world falls apart
as we start
