Bang

Layzie Bone

you dont wanna run in with me mang a tang you dont want it to come down to that bang bang bang
you dont want it to come down to that bang bang bang in the middle of the drama im da one that done bomb ya dont mean to alarm ya eat niggas alive like a pack of paranas more drama than your baby momma aint never been calmer plus i heard about karma just figgured id warn ya from the always down back to california nigga heat n heavy like a knight in armor perfectly honest i dont want no drama so nigga just leave let the door hit you at where the lord split you at why you still standn on your feet feet you dont wanna run in with me mang a tang
you dont want it to come down to that bang bang bang light em up a nigga knock em down little bitty ole me go pound for pound round for round imma show a nigga how to burry you unda da ground when the thunda sound off and leave these niggas dead again im gonna be the one standing like a vietnam veteran dont try to press your luck i dont wanna fuck you up cuz i got alot to loose i aint trying to lose my buzz if i get fed up better find somewhere to hide out these killas dont mind to let up so nigga you better just ride out you dont wanna run in with me mang a tang
you dont want it to come down to that bang bang bang
you dont wanna run in with me mang a tang
you dont want it to come down to that bang bang bang you dont wanna run in with me mang a tang (yous a gangst boi) you dont want it to come down to that bang bang bang
