

Kit Carson

Bruce Cockburn

And the President said to Kit Carson:
"Take my best four horsemen please
And ride out to the four directions,
Make my great lands barren for me" Kit Carson said to the President
"You've made your offer sweet
I'll accept this task you've set for me
My fall's not yet complete" Kit Carson knew he had a job to do
Like other jobs he had before
He'd made the grade
He learned to trade in famine, pestilence, and war Kit Carson was a hero to some
With his poison and his flame
But somewhere there's a restless ghost
That used to bear his name

Songwriters

COCKBURN, BRUCE Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc., CARLIN AMERICA INC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>