

Tired of Fighting With You

Barenaked Ladies

I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm so tired of fighting with you Sitting in my chair
It's like you're not even there
I shout into the air
But I know that you care
You don't hear a word I say
Never listened anyway
There's no amount I wouldn't pay
To make you go away I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm so tired of fighting with you You never wait
For the hearts that you will break
For the dreams that you will take
Why don't you go jump in the lake
Why can't we have peace
Or quiet at least
Between west and east
Between man and beast I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm so tired of fighting with you Leaning on the sink
Too tired to even think
I know you're waiting there
At the bottom of the stair
And I think of my little girl
The biggest love in the world
I know I'll thank someone
I know what I'm fighting for Coming 'round the bend
Here's to things that mend
Here's to friends
And the helping hands they lend I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm tired of fighting with you
I'm so tired of fighting with you
I'm so tired of fighting with you
I'm so tired of fighting with you
