Instead Laugh

Onesidezero

Suicide, somethings missin'
I'm bound in flesh, it cut once
All his life, he was waitin'
Control, faith left envyBut all her life, she was searchin'
So real, followed her own
Suicide
Never showed meAll that was true for me
I'm not like youBut open your eyes
I drank from your mind, it's tastes so divine
Oh, all that we knew, it seems so untrue
I faced your life, come give me a trySoon you'll know, when it's over
So real, followed her own
Suicide
It's me you swallowAll that was true for me
I'm not like youBut open your eyes
I drank from your mind, it taste so divine
Oh, all that we knew, it seems so untrue
I faced your life, come give me a tryAll her life, she was searchin'
So real, followed her own
Suicide
Somethings missin'
