Eldest 11

You're too weak for me to compensate...
Look at you embracing forever.
I gave you the world. I'm too cold to believe your shit anymore.
I'll white wash you. You reach for the sky.
It was never yours to deny.
I can't be anything, I can't be what I want.
All the things that I wanted it seems...
Just die in front of me.
You'll pay one day...
I took the cuts and scrapes, so thanks.
Because of you I know I'm not fucking fake.
(and nothing's real)
People tell you what they want you to believe inside. (Like)
I like you standing there.
I see you through the smoke, I see you through the trees.
I'll starve you like the rest in life.
I'll walk on evil ground.
I'll shank a loved one to bleed out.
I'll erase the things you've done wrong.
Because of all the dreams,
All the things that I wanted it seems...
Just die in front of me.
You'll pay one day...
I took the cuts and scrapes, so thanks.
Because of you I know I'm not fucking fake.
(and nothing's real)
I'll cut a loved one, that's all I know.
I'll rip their flesh from my marrow and bone.
It'll make me stronger!
Because, sometimes you get further alone.
You'll pay one day...
I took the cuts and scrapes, so thanks.
Because of you I know I'm not fucking fake.
(and nothing's real)
Because of you, I know I'm not fucking fake.
