D.B.C.

'when I was applying a housing authority showed up and left some brown tan concrete with a few holes in it -- I got to shakin cause it looked like a credit card and I could only have $2000.00 my account and that's a debit any way a street dookey biggay --gave me some brichitas and i got to bacon st fried and ready to section off that block party when the authorities showed me up and I lost the spelling bee oh well cant' be reminded of that!

not even a spell check shows up ---it's like howard dynamics random selection i got augury art practice instead of music practice---what note is f heptachord titus'
