You Ain't Gonna Change

Colton Ford

Hey, I?m tired of all the games that you wanna play
Always the same, I?m over it, I?m telling you I?m on my way
You see, I?ve been here before, you leave me wanting more
I?ve been keeping score, I?m losing it, through with it
I?m out the door

You say you?re down with me but, baby, can?t you see
Just what you do to me, you take it all away
And if I stay with you, don?t know what I would do
That?s why this time we?re through, I?d best be on my way

You say you?re happy this way
I say that ain?t gonna play
I?ve tried, I cried, I?ve died
And, no, you ain?t gonna change, no
I just can?t take it no more
What am I staying here for?
This time I?m gonna leave
?Cause you ain?t gonna change

I?m really over you and all the shit you do
You ain?t been true, I?m telling you I?m over it, baby, we?re through
And you, you?ve got work to do but it?s up to you to see it through
And if you do, it?ll get better for you

Baby, make no mistake, I gave you everything
But all you did was take and took it all away
For me to live my life, I had to say goodbye
Ain?t no more tears to cry, it?s time to walk away

You say you?re happy this way
I say that ain?t gonna play
I?ve tried, I cried, I?ve died
And, no, you ain?t gonna change, no
I just can?t take it no more
What am I staying here for?
This time I?m gonna leave
?Cause you ain?t gonna change

Change

You ain?t gonna change

Pack your bag
