

Hide It So Deep

Stephen Stills

If I fell in love with you again
Would you simply want it said you once knew me
Could you care enough to follow and see
Just what is it lies between us, why we hide it so deep
I was told by a friend that you miss me
And you try very hard to forget me

And you live your busy life, there's no room for me
'Cause the thing you're sure I'd take, is your will to be free
And you wrestle with the chains of your burden
And you're sure when its gone you can be certain
You can live as you please, give what you sell
And you carry that weight so nobody can tell

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>