

Unconditionally

Lori Michaels

All my life Ive wanted, just to be loved without no limits or boundaries, to worry of.
Never thought that I would find all that I'm looking for-then you opened up my eyes-to a whole new world.
(but) Will you love me unconditionally?
Will you love me now and love me when things just don't go right?
Will you give me- unconditionally-the trust that we both need-cause I believe in love...unconditionally
I know sometimes it seems like I just don't care
(and) I'll neglect (you) and hurt you by just one stare
but, we'll talk it out, we'll work it out together cause all we know is that we are forever.
Tell me: Will you love me unconditionally?
Will you love me now and love me when things just don't go right?
Will you give me- unconditionally-the trust that we both need-cause I believe in love...
without the fairy tales. I just want what's real.
As the days go by & the seasons change, I just wanna feel that if I give you less than all that you deserve, can I still count on you--cause I'm so scared to lose you...
Will you love me unconditionally?
Will you love me now and love me when things just don't go right?
Will you give me unconditionally-the trust that we both need-cause I believe in love...unconditionally.
