

Time Will Tell

Mystic Prophecy

look in my eyes and tell me what you see now can you feel the deep hate in my soul your heart and soul are empty like an endless desert suffering under the burning sun and you turned to ashesi hate you far all that you have done to me one night i will return and bring you back to hellwhen time will tell the demons of the night will hold you back again when time will tell the creations of the night are waiting doe your last breath this is your end the coldness now is back again someday i will gain back my heart say good bye to the light the seven seals are broken and then the blood on my hands will be yours
