

A Living, Breathing Piece of Defecating Meat

Cattle Decapitation

Death on two legs and onward! The gestation has now mutated into what looks like a human It displays intellect and understands reproduction We should have stopped it before it got this far That writhing reject, that web-footed bastard child That spawn of animated lard, that curdled wad of embarrassment Dripping mucus and leaving a trail Released upon the populace this "thing" shall breed, emit its seed a monstrous mold of cells resembling jellied meat assembly A living, breathing piece of defecating meat
Two-legged massacre expressing glands in heat Draining the bleed Putrid will be its offspring Filtered through genetic anomaly A throbbing, misshapen slug of a "human being"
Mucus crusts on your pink skin, shined by sebaceous sebum Fucking ugly and disgusting
The missing link between feces and humanity "When I try to speak through my spurthole I simply choke on the mucus" like "When I try to examine my asshole in the mirror for polyps or whatever you call it, I erupt" We are living, we are breathing, we are pieces of defecating meat. A living, breathing piece of defecating meat Descending on the earth contaminated seeds Ripe with disease
