

One

Dani Shay

Time is of the essence and the essence is of you
I have never know someone who does thing like you do You take the time to laugh it up you call things as they are.
You are my, you are my, tiny shiny star.Take me away-oh
Take me away-oh
Take me away-oh to place where I become, become, one, two, three, four, five
I feel so alive-yeah
one, two, three, four five
I feel so, I feel so alive-yeahSimple times in a simple place have never felt so good.
Until we met I always felt a bit misunderstood.
You take the time to listen close, you part the cloudy skies.
'Cause even the rain can't help but fall for your big baby blue eyesTake me away-oh
Take me away-oh
Take me away-oh to a place where I become, become, one, two, three, four, five
I feel so alive.yeah
one, two, three, four, five
I feel so, I feel so alive.One is for the number of days it took for me to fall
Two is when I knew you were one to play along Three we started see how deep we could be if we were to trust that Four our love could handle anything that came to us and that Five in the morning we stop, we listen, we talk, we kiss and we stare can't believe we're there.Time is of the essence and the essence of youTake me away-oh
Take me away-oh
Take me away-oh To a place where I become, becomeTake me away-oh
Take me away-oh
Take me away-oh To a place where I become, we become one.
