Homage To the Betrayed

Spiritual Beggars

Someone bring me the wine!
Well you know, know what you came for Are you still blinded by hatewell I try and I do understand you never met a woman that hasn't betrayed meYou sit and you wait by the phone You sure gonna gun down that whorewell I try and I do understand you never me a woman that hasn't betrayed meSomeone bring me the wine!
Well you did, you did what you came for said it was a voice in your headwell I try and I do understand you But can't you tell a demon from a friend
