New

Lifer

Take another hit and it makes me big again
In, out around my head again
Here and I'm never givin' up
'Cause I don't wanna leave today
My situation declines
The tension rises above
Everything I see
Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything now
One more hit and I forget again
Now I'm on my back again
Down and I'm not gettin' up
'Cause I don't wanna move today
My motivation declines
The temperature rises above
Everything I feel
Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything
Let it go

(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything now
You've seen this happen before
You know, it's not a mistake
If you've seen this before you'll see it again
You fell asleep when I was awake
You left me blind, left behind
When all I feel is hate

And all I hate
All I've hated
Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything
Let it go
(Go, go)
Let it, let it
Let it go
(Go, go)
You can't have everything now
You can't have everything now
You can't
