Taken Away

Before You Exit

On a cold summer day we were holdin' hands Blue birds blue sky, you remember when But then you disappeared, it's like you vanished in thin air
And it tears mew apart to think you never cared

You're taken away from me, you're taken away from my heart
You're runnin' away with my love,
I never even got a start

You're taken away from me,
you're taken away from my life
You're runnin' away with my heart,
when I think about you now

You were my whole life and now you're gone
My future plans have been withdrawn
You can do what you wanna do, I know you've got the right
If you keep runnin' on like this, you'll be runnin' your whole life C'mon!

You're taken away from me,
you're taken away from my heart
You're runnin' away with my love,
I never even got a start

You're taken away from me,
you're taken away from my life
You're runnin' away with my heart,
when I think about you now

(Woah [x18])

You're taken away from me,
you're taken away from my heart
You're runnin' away with my love,
I never even got a start

You're taken away from me,
you're taken away from my life

You're runnin' away with my heart,
when I think about you

Taken away, taken away, taken away,
away from my heart
Taken away, taken away, taken away,
away from my heart
