Ragdoll

Ashlee Simpson

Hey, hey
I've been thrown 'round once or twice
Beneath it all, was born to fight
I hear your voice in my head and it's killing me
I've never been a fan of happy endings
Your love must be tainted
If it's how you paint it
You don't know what you're in for
You're so rotten to the core
Why you gotta throw me around like a ragdoll?
You can toss me out, you can toss me out
I've been sittin' back keepin' quiet for too long
You can't touch me now, you can't touch me now
Why you gotta throw me around like a ragdoll?
You can toss me out, you can toss me out
You just wanna use me up 'til I'm all gone
That's not me at all, that's not me at all, hey
Hey, hey
Won't try so hard you can't admit
Open my heart, you never come in
Can't find my way through your maze
And in my mouth you put a very bad taste
Your love must be tainted
If it's how you paint it
You don't know what you're in for
You're so rotten to the core
Why you gotta throw me around like a ragdoll?

You can toss me out, you can toss me out
I've been sittin' back keepin' quiet for too long
You can't touch me now, you can't touch me now
Why you gotta throw me around like a ragdoll?
You can toss me out, you can toss me out
You just wanna use me up 'til I'm all gone
That's not me at all, that's not me at all, hey
You're my ragdoll, you're my ragdoll
You're my ragdoll, you're
Don't you see my black tears?
Please don't make me stay here

Woah, don't you see my black tears?
Please don't make me stay here, woah
Why you gotta throw me around like a ragdoll?
You can toss me out, you can toss me out
I've been sittin' back keepin' quiet for too long
You can't touch me now, you can't touch me now
Why you gotta throw me around like a ragdoll?
You can toss me out, you can toss me out
You just wanna use me up 'til I'm all gone
That's not me at all, that's not me at all, hey
You're my ragdoll, you're my ragdoll
You're my ragdoll, you're, hey, hey
You're, hey, hey, you're my ragdoll
You're my ragdoll, you're, hey
