

Orange Moon

Royal Bangs

Orange Moon looks like its laughing
The warm wind blows you close
And says, "Let me in"
Stand alone inside the garden
I saw her cast in stone, she points at something Hanging from the Branch of a willow tree
Tugging at the twine
And kicking that beat(Main Verse)
Keep spending your time out picking flowers
Keep pushing that wheel uphill forever
Not good enough is an "A" for effort
Keep pushing that wheel uphill forever
Darling don't be scared
Its just a dream, its nothing
Honest, I'll be fine
Just need to quiet my mind
Keep spending your time out picking flowers
Keep pushing that wheel uphill forever
Not good enough is an "A" for effort
Keep pushing that wheel uphill forever And I know the enemy
We share a drivers seat
The mogul is inept see
He sounds a lot like me
Orange Moon, feels like its laughing
The warm wind blows you close
And says, "Not the end"(Repeat Main Verse)
