Pabu Boy

Skankin' Pickle

Can't sleep once again
Too many things on my mind
I wish I could change the ways
That I have spent my timeToo lazy to get up
And help my father with the chores
I'm sure I'm not a bum
But who am I to scoreBut starting from 0-0
Give me the ball I say
Pride I have and always will
And I'm not a Pabu boyTake time to think things over
Hey, that sounds okay
Even though it's four years later
And the kid has grown to stayMake no mistakes
I understand there comes a time
To move along in some way
And make ends meet with momUntil that day, need I say
"Don't worry bout me"
I will be fine you see
And I am not a Pabu boy
