Sometimes it's all within your very heart and soul

Reaching the universe known and unknown

Penetrating mysteries well hidden to the world

Delivering secracies of secret ecstasyIf you believe in your dreams it gives you the power

To transcend realities which are not of your own

Recalling what you were projecting what you'll be

Looking at the picture of your next step in lifeFeel alive, feel so unreal

Feel like I'm born again

Ruling over my dreams

Exulting, entering

The world of miracles

Doors are open, bright days are callingThe better of the best has to be different

Each angle of your view presents a new horizon

String at where you go, not looking where you are

A symptom of vertigo says you're gonna go farFeel alive, feel so unreal

Feel like I'm born again

Ruling over my dreams

Exulting, entering

The world of miracles

Doors are open, bright days are callingPleasure and delight extended in souvenirs

Searching and hunting lights of upcoming voyages

Osmosis and rapture emphasized in actions

Settling foundations of an ever-changing life

A simple expression of the force in control

Self-realization by melting differences

Encrypted messages that one reads in others

That all things at all times aspire to be justifiedFeel alive, feel so unreal

Feel like I'm born again

Ruling over my dreams

Exulting, entering

The world of miracles

Doors are open, bright days are calling
