Whispers

Unsun

I'll give you all I've got to give.
It's never too late to say I'm sorry.
We have one life to live,
that'll be the beginning of a great story.
You are my Sun in the darkness of the night.
You are my ice land on the sea of memories.
You are my Sun in the darkness of the night
and be my eyes when I lose my sight .I like your whispering in the dark,
there are whispers of the past.
You are hiding deep inside my dreams.
Dreaming the final dream, the last.
I like your whispering in the dark,
there are whispers of the past.
You are hiding deep inside my dreams.
Dreaming the final dream, the last.Give more than you can take,
then I'll give us a second chance.
We have one life to live,
I'll give you all I've got to give.
Like a moonlight,you're
showing me the way.
Like heroine
you course in my veins.
Like a moonlight,you're
showing me the way.
Like heroine
you course in my veins.I like your whispering in the dark,
there are whispers of the past.
You are hiding deep inside my dreams.
Dreaming the final dream, the last.
I like your whispering in the dark,
there are whispers of the past.
You are hiding deep inside my dreams.
Dreaming the final dream, the last.
