Love Like Blood

Blitzkid

Emptiness wells up from my insides
Memories are fading with the dimming of the lights
Alone with the things you've left behind
This is a scar I cannot hide
(chorus)
And your love looks like blood tonight
In the shadows no one sees me cry
And your love looks like blood tonight, but this feels so right
It hurts so bad to say goodbye....Well wishes and your kisses they bade me farewell
Your soul's to far away to save me from this hell
That I now reside in when I can't touch your face
An angel with tattered wings falling from God's grace
(chorus)
Hurts so bad to say good
Hurts so bad to say good
Hurts so bad to say good
Hurts so bad to say goodbye...My eyes are blinded by the light,
I'm coming soon for you, this time.
I cannot bare to be left behind,
Together in death our ties shall bind.
(chorus)
Hurts so bad to say good
Hurts so bad to say good
Hurts so bad to say good
Hurts so bad to say goodbye...
